This case has been reevaluated in the light of the ADEX criteria and it continues to fall within the criteria because of the subject's activity in behalf of the Soviets in Europe according to Julius Rosenberg. Subject left the U.S. in January, 1948. He has not been heard of since 1950 when he left Paris, France. Because of his previous work in behalf of the Soviets, it is believed he has the willingness and capability to engage in espionage. Therefore it is recommended that the subject be retained on the ADEX of the NYO.

On 8/1/73, BERNARD BARR, subject's brother and operator of a printing business at 20 W. 22nd Street, N.Y.C. advised that he has heard nothing concerning his brother's whereabouts and does not know if his brother, JOEL, is alive.

ReNYrep of SA [REDACTED] dated 6/27/63.

The subject left the US on 1/21/48 and was last known to have resided in Paris, France, in 8/50. All logical investigation to locate the subject has been completed but nothing has been heard of his whereabouts since he disappeared.

The above precautions are believed adequate to alert the Bureau in the event the subject tries to return to the US.

Since the subject disappeared nearly 14 years ago, it is believed continuing his name on the Security Index serves no useful purpose. It is therefore recommended his name be deleted from the SI.

This case will be kept in a P status awaiting the Bureau's decision on removal of the subject from the SI.

The Bureau does not agree with your recommendation that the name of the subject be deleted from the Security Index. In view of the possibility that the subject might enter the United States under an assumed name and thereby elude the stops placed by INS and the Department of State, the Bureau feels that his name should be retained on the Security Index and that appropriate checks be made to locate him in accordance with the program in checking Security Index subjects.

Re: Joel Barr

The following is a description of Joel Barr:

Race, white; sex, male; height, 6'; weight, 150; hair, brown; eyes, brown; complexion, light.

David Greenglass, a convicted Soviet espionage agent, furnished the following information about Joel Barr:

Julius Rosenberg told Greenglass he had given money to Joel Barr to assist Barr in his trip to Europe in 1948. Rosenberg wanted Greenglass to leave the country, and when Greenglass refused, Rosenberg said more important people had already left and he mentioned Joel Barr. Rosenberg told Greenglass that Barr was doing work for the Russians overseas.

Julius Rosenberg was convicted in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 29, 1951, of conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the Soviet Union. He was executed at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York, on June 19, 1953.
